

2 U. C. Professors Win High Honors

Two University of California faculty members have been honored for outstanding service in their fields.

Dean William L. Prosser, of the School of Law, received the annual gold medal of the regents of the University of Minnesota, his alma mater, for "noted professional attainment."

Walter J. Fischel, chairman of the department of Near Eastern Languages, was elected president of the western branch of the American Oriental Society at its annual meeting in Seattle.
