

Comic Book Boy On Crime Spree

ROCHESTER (Minn.), April 21.—(INS)—A 13 year old boy, arrested trying to hold up a candy store with a toy pistol, has confessed that he also attempted to extort $12,500 from five prominent residents of Rochester, Minn.

The youth said he got the idea from comic books and radio and television plays, and planned to use the money for a vacation in Florida.