

Moscow Calls 200 World Chiefs

TOKYO, May 21.—(INS)— Japanese government security officials disclosed today that Moscow has secretly summoned some 200 Communists from various countries, including Japan, for an intensive training program to provide international Communism with strengthened leadership.

The disclosure was reported by two of Japan's leading newspapers, the Asahi and the Mainichi, both of which said that some twenty selected Japanese Communists were making arrangements to travel in secret to the Soviet Union next month.
