

Baby Killed by Toaster

NEW YORK.—An 18 month old baby girl was killed instantly when she pulled an electric toaster into her bath water.

Maureen Clark, who was visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Janet Geraghty, was getting her bath in the kitchen basin when her grandmother left for a moment to answer the telephone. Maureen reached for the connecting cord and yanked the toaster into the water, electrocuting herself.