

Piano Tuner's Tools Taken by Looters

CHICAGO.—Earl Greenfield, 42, complained to police that robbers who broke into his auto parked at his home between midnight and noon "put him out of business.

"I'm a piano tuner," he explained. "They took all my tuning tools." He said five of the tools cannot be replaced.