

U. C. Students Get Fulbright Awards

Three University of California graduate students have been awarded Fulbright awards for study abroad during the 1955-'56 academic year.

They are John E. Steinberg, 22, of 850 Thirty-eighth Avenue, who will study zoology at the University of Sydney, Australia; Marvin H. Tartak, 25, of 2515½ Piedmont Avenue, Berkeley, who will study at the Institute of Music in Berlin, and Norman I. Kanter, 28, of Santa Monica, who will undertake research on visual arts at the University of Paris.
