

Graduates From His 21st School

CHILLICOTHE (Mo.). — Seventeen year old Bob Mills hasn't been able to stay long with his pals. He has lived in sixty towns in seven States and has changed schools twenty-one times.

Bob has had to move so often because his father, Art Mills, is

San Francisco Examiner 9
Thursday, July 7, 1955 CCC

a construction foreman and goes from project to project. Bob was born in Burlington, Kan.

He has just been graduated from high school. His mother says he wants to join the United States Marine Corps. "He wants to travel," said Mrs. Mills.