

Cop Expert on Shakespeare Now Has $16,000 TV Prize

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP) —New York City Policeman Redmond L. O'Hanlon is finding his spare time interest in Shakespeare profitable.

Drawing on his knowledge of the bard, O'Hanlon has piled up winnings of $16,000 on the CBS television giveaway show, "The $64,000 Question."

Last night he doubled his $8,000 prize of the week before by telling who printed the first collected edition of Shakespeare's plays and when. The answer: Isaac Jaggard and Ed Blunt in 1623.

Next week O'Hanlon, the father of five, can choose whether to take the $16,000 or try to double it by answering another Shakespeare question correctly. If successful, he then will have a chance to try for the top prize of $64,000.

Should he miss a question, however, he loses the cash winnings accumulated so far but will get a 1955 Cadillac as a consolation prize.

O'Hanlon, 39, and a policeman for ten years, makes a hobby of Shakespeare and his works.

When he entered the TV giveaway contest he was given his choice of various kinds of questions and picked the Shakespeare category.
