

Woman Bakes Her Wet Watch

HOUSTON (Tex.).—A woman who wanted her watch fixed, explained to Jeweler Frank Holubec what had happened to it:

“I got it wet, so I put it in the oven at 350 degrees. Then I went over to a neighbor's house and didn't remember about it until a half hour later.”