

Stolen Money Returns in Mail

HARTFORD (Conn.).—When Mrs. John Alheskie got a mysterious white envelope in the mail containing $13.01, she had no explanation. The next day a brown envelope arrived with a leather wallet and her personal papers, stolen from her handbag three years before.

$112 Verdict in 'Wrong Knee' Suit

LONDON—A boy in Britain recently sued a hospital after a surgeon had operated on a wrong knee. Damages of $112 were awarded.

The boy went to the hospital with a piece of broken sewing machine needle in his left knee. A surgeon operated on the right knee and found nothing. Then, realizing that a mistake had been made, operated on the left knee and removed the broken needle.

Mosk Will Head Bureau at U.C.

Sanford A. Mosk, University of California professor of economics, will become director of the university's Bureau of Business and Economic Research July 1, Chancellor Clark Kerr announced yesterday.

Professor Mosk, a member of the Berkeley faculty since 1934, will replace Frank L. Kidner, who is retiring to become chairman of the academic senate budget committee.
