

QUITTING TIME?—Prime Minister Nehru of India, right, puckers lip as he consults his wrist watch after one session of the Afro-Asia conference in Bandung, Indonesia. With Nehru is Red China Premier Chou

En-lai, who startled delegates by his offer to negotiate the Formosa question with the United States, on certain conditions. Nehru is one of the sponsors of the historic conference, and Chou a dominating figure.