

Wife Borrows His Teeth to Bite Him

DALLAS (Tex.).—A husband seeking divorce complained to Dallas County District Judge Dallas A. Blankenship that his toothless wife borrowed his teeth and decided to keep them because they couldn't afford a second set.

And what's more, the husband complained, "she also bit me with my own teeth."

The divorce was granted and the teeth ordered returned to the husband.