Volunteer Under New Reserve Law

FORT ORD, Oct. 23.—Five young men from San Francisco, among the first volunteers to enlist under the new Armed Forces Reserve Act, are undergoing basic training here with the Twentieth Infantry Regiment.

Under the new program, the men serve in the active Army for six months and then are released to a reserve unit for seven and a half years.

Volunteers from San Francisco are, Gaeton Parente Jr., 171 Twenty-sixth Avenue; F. Edwin Haverty, 555 Vienna Street; Elroy Frankson, 120 Holladay Avenue; John Alverque, 2427 Anza Street, and Richard Checci, 475 Crestlake Drive.
