

$1,226 Whipped by Wind Over Bay

OCONTO (Wis.).—Righer Cloud, 25, of Sneads, Fla., figures his $1,226 is gone with the wind.

Cloud told police that his wallet slipped out of his pocket as he worked 300 feet up on the WMBV-TV tower two miles north of here. He said he found the wallet when he got down but all that was in it was his social security card.

Cloud said the contents of the wallet probably fell out on the way down and the high wind whipped the bills over the waters of Green Bay.

He said he had just cashed a Federal income tax refund of $976.52.
