

Bill Collector's House Fired On

CHICAGO.—Six shots were fired from the street early yesterday into the garage at the home of George Forsyth. Four of the slugs struck Forsyth's automobile, visible through a garage window. Another car belonging to his son was untouched. The father, owner of the City Wide Collection Company, a bill collecting agency, said he knew of no reason for the attack.

---