

Accused Excused From Jury Duty

PONTIAC (Ill.)—Fred Goodman had a perfect reason to be excused from jury duty.

Called up to hear a case involving drunken driving charges, he told Judge J. H. Benjamin in Livingston County Court: "But Judge, I'm the defendant."

28 Wallpaper Layers in House

B E E S T O N (England) — A wallpaper hanger had to strip off twenty-eight layers of paper before redecorating a house in this Nottinghamshire town.
