

Cop Starts and Stops Motorist

INDEPENDENCE (Mo.) —

When State Patrolman A. F. Closson saw Waldo D. Emery trying to get his stalled automobile started, he stopped and helped him. They got it started.

A short time later the patrolman saw Emery again — this time whizzing past his patrol car. Closson testified in magistrate court he gave Emery a ticket for traveling sixty-five miles an hour in a forty-five miles an hour zone. Emery pleaded guilty and was fined $15.
