

Galileo High Art Prize

Student First in Safety Poster Contest

Art students at Galileo High School for the third straight year have won a first prize in the nationwide School Safety Poster Contest conducted by the American Automobile Association.

Robert Wong, who took a first prize last year, won top honors for the school again this year, it was announced by the California State Automobile Association, which sponsors the contest in northern and central California and Nevada.

A second prize was won by John E. Lee, also of Galileo High School. Instructor of the young artists is Nicholas Vogulkin.
