

Girls Strike to Marry on Job

MOTHERWELL (Scotland).—
Seventy girls at a synthetic jewelry factory here after a one day strike won the right to choose their own honeymoon dates.

The firm has withdrawn a new order telling the girls they would get no time off to get married. The firm believed the girls should marry during vacations. The unions backed the girls' opposition.