

Clerks Sought By Air Force

Foreign Service for Women Offered

Women between the ages of 21 and 40 are needed to fill clerk-stenographer vacancies in Air Force overseas commands at Japan, Okinawa and French Morocco, the civilian personnel division at Travis Air Force Base announced yesterday.

Salaries start as high as $3,415 with housing and transportation to and from the foreign posts furnished by the Government. Applicants must promise to remain overseas at least two years.

More information on the positions may be had at the personnel division, Travis Air Force Base, Fairfield.

26,500 Grant To Stanford

Stanford Research Institute has received a $26,500 grant from the Ford Foundation to assist some fifty foreign sci-

SLATE PICKED BY GREETERS

George J. Willis, manager of the Shattuck Hotel in Berkeley, was installed as president of the Golden Gate Hotel Greeters, Charter No. 4, at the forty-fifth installation banquet.

The following vice presidents were installed at the recent Mark Hopkins meeting: Cecil Tanner, Sir Francis Drake Hotel; Harris Baldwin, Rickey's Studio Inn; Joe McConahy, Athenian Nile Club; Harold Merrill, St. Francis Hotel; Jack Shea, Don Hotel, and Clarence Cook, Bellevue Hotel. William Walcom of the St. Francis was installed as secretary-treasurer.

Follow your favorite Examiner features while you're on vacation. Order The Examiner's convenient vacation mailing service! There's no extra charge!