

Home Decoration Classes to Open

A new series of classes in home decoration starts this Thursday evening, April 14, at Galileo Adult School, Bay Street and Van Ness Avenue, it is announced by Miss Phebe Ward, principal.

Meetings will be held in the school's Little Theater from 7:30 to 9 p.m., with experts from the city's leading stores as the speakers.

The first program will be devoted to color and its use in giving personality to the home. Lillian Kersner presents the subject through an illustrated talk.

The second meeting, Thursday, April 21, features Warren Gregory in a program on "Furniture—How to Select and Combine Different Styles."

Other speakers in the six-week course are Walter O'Dwyer, A. H. Hazard, Marion Henderson, Lloyd Smith and M. L. Allred. Subjects include modernizing the kitchen, wall papering and painting, selecting fabrics, use of accessories, and rugs.
